- Greetings Senate, this past Tuesday, I emailed approximately 35 Senators to see how we can move forward legislation-wise. I have gotten several responses and met with Vice-Chair Raz and Chair Desai earlier this week. About four other Senators have responded and scheduled meetings with me. I am looking forward to meeting and working with them.
- If you haven't already done so, I implore you to please check your Senate email and schedule a meeting with me if you have any legislative measures that you wish to work on / already started working on. I would be more than happy to help.
- As we focus more on legislation moving forward, I have taken the time to create a graphic of Senate Rules 5 that outlines how to go about introducing legislative measures. The graphic can be found in the Senate-wide chat. The PDF version of it can also be found in your Senate emails. Please refer to it when you need to and if you still have questions, concerns, and suggestions, please don't hesitate to reach out to the Pro-Tempore's Office.

  - Good Evening all, CRT is continuing our discussion and making changes to our spending policy for the upcoming fiscal year.
    - i. We are almost finished with going down the policy, so I am hopeful that we will be able to adopt the resolution this next week.
  - The google doc for suggestions of CRT changes is still open to all senators so if you have any ideas please fill that out or reach out to me privately.
2. FAO Committee (Chair Benjamin Rembaum, sga_fao@ucf.edu); (Vice Chair Rob Gray, sga_cah2@ucf.edu)-
  - Good evening everyone, we will be seeing FAO Spending Policy tonight on second reading!
  - In committee this week we discussed various ideas for marketing to RSO's during this time, along with brainstorming ideas to do when we are back in person.
  - We also discussed making a pamphlet that the FAO Committee could use through out the years. Think of it as a guide to future committee members including questions that should be asked along with helpful "hints and tricks."
  - We talked about different ways of promoting RSO events that we fund within Student Government, encompassing all three branches, along with helping with event attendance.
  - And lastly, we had an idea of having an optional portion on a Knightconnect form that the RSO's could fill out letting us know how their event and/or project went along with sending any picture of the event and/or project to us. The purpose of this is to build stronger relationship's with RSO's rather than us ending our conversation right after they get funding.
3. ORS Committee (Chair Colton Flynn, sgaors@ucf.edu); (Vice Chair Carlos Oquendo, sga_cah3@ucf.edu) –
  - This week, ORS had a pretty quick meeting and saw Title VIII.
