- ◆ Student Affairs Services Engagement Team: Sabrina and I met with different campus leaders and administrators and came up with different ways to engage FTIC students in the Fall. These plans have been sent over to Dr. Cartwright that will hopefully aid him in his efforts to reopen the university.
- ◆ Student Forum: There will be a Student Forum hosted next week via Zoom for current students who have any concerns regarding the university during this difficult time. This serves as a way to gather feedback about what students are experiencing right now and future engagement efforts. Sabrina and I, alongside other university representatives, will be on the panel ready to answer any student questions. The date and time is still to be determined and I will let all of you know as soon as I get that information. I encourage all of you to attend and ask any questions or voice any concerns. Also feel free to advertise the forum to all of your friends and colleagues.

- ◆ Brodie:
 - Happy to see more people in the Senate, congrats!
 - Please fill out this Google Form: <https://forms.gle/SBFkkezSMApTyRh9>
 - I wanted to take a minute tonight to talk about an issue we're seeing across the country, most notably George Floyd, but also Breonna Taylor and Ahmaud Arbery lately. First I want to acknowledge that this isn't a new issue, but it has been across the news and our social media a lot the last few weeks.
 - There is nothing I can do to fix the situation, or to make it safer. What I can do is be here, and listen. I encourage anyone who has been feeling upset, mad, sad, or confused, or just needs to process their feelings, to reach out and talk. Obviously, I am white, and therefore can never truly understand what you may be experiencing, but I can listen, and I can empathize.
 - If you are seeing the news and are looking for something you can do to help or get involved, I encourage you to read the following articles, as they have been good resources to help me find ways to take tangible actions.
