 1. Speech:
 - a. I am a philosophy major. A bit about me, I am from a small island north of Jacksonville. I want to be active. I want to live my life presently, and be the kind of person to look back in college and realize I made an impact. I want to be an active member of this community at large, particularly in CAH. I want to represent the unrepresented majors and such in my college. I want to create a passion for the arts. This includes making a sort of festival for RSOs and majors and such to advocate their talents.

2. Questioning:

- a. Appline: why do you want to be a senator?
 - i. I would like to support people and to represent the passion of students and to improve people's lives with the resources I have.
- b. Regan: What are two of your statutory duties as a senator?
 - i. Senate meetings and attend retreat
- c. Regan: Can you identify the 7 senate committees?
 - i. Fiscal: CRT, FAO, ORS
 - ii. Internal: SBA, LJR, E&A, GAP
- d. Regan: What committee would you like to join?
 - i. FAO or CRT because I would like to see RSOs ask for help and wherever I am needed.
- e. Correa-Ferro: If you could be a superhero, who would you be and how does that character reflect your leadership skills?
 - i. Flash would be the hero because I used to be called the Flash in high school wrestling. I can make things happen and always running around.
- f. Appline: If you can change anything about UCF what would it be?
 - i. Build a community to the center of the arts at UCF and would love to have students look at it and feel pride for it.
- g. Moscol: What has been your biggest accomplishment in your collegiate career so far?
 - i. Proud to be Senior Class President in my high school and to wake up and to do the things that I know I can do and to help the students. In college, try to be a part of student government is my biggest accomplishment so far.
- h. O'Blenis: How will you balance your safety initiative by keeping students' civil liberties?
 - i. I would not suggest impeding on students' privacy towards the cameras on bike racks.
- i. O' Blenis: Who is the greatest philosopher so far in your opinion?
 - i. I agree and disagree with many philosophers but I do not stand by a specific philosopher.
- j. Gabriel Cruz: Are there any particular RSO's you wish to represent or work with, and why?
 - i. I enjoy writing and wanted to gain connections with Writers Uknighed
- k. Appline: Since coming to UCF, what is your favorite memory or accomplishment?

- i. Going to the Day at the Capital was a great experience and was helpful to me to see what I want to do.
- 1. Foster: As a freshman here at UCF how do you plan on balances your life and your new commitments?
 - i. I balance my life very well and I know what time I will be putting into this organization.
- m. Besirevic: Do you believe humans are morally good or morally bad? Please elaborate.
 - i. I do believe that people’s moral compass points towards being morally good but it is up to their discretion.
- 3. Debate:
 - a. Alhaddad: I will be abstaining because the answers were very fluffy and does not mean you are not qualified.
 - b. Regan: I encourage you to vote for this candidate because he has a bright future and this individual has a great passion towards his ideas.
 - c. Correa-Fero: I also agree that he is a great individual and will encourage you to vote in favor of Rob
 - d. O’Blenis: I do encourage people to vote for you but there were some fluffy answers
 - e. Besirevic: He has no experience but he will do great and he will be a great asset to Senate.
