FINANCIAL ALLOCATIONS FOR ORGANIZATIONS

- i. About spending policy, please go back and re-read the spending policy. Please put it in the GroupMe so senators can familiarize themselves with it beforehand.

 1. Allocations:
 2. Bills:
 3. Resolutions:
11. Member Discussion:
12. Miscellaneous Business:
 1. Ideas for marketing to RSO's
 - i. Senator Regan- Is there a particular need to market FAO when we cannot give RSO's funds?
 1. Chair Rembaum- It would help to prepare, but there is no rush. Depending on what we come up with.
 - ii. ORS Rep- What if we promoted the spending policy and SG in general for the next fiscal year.
 - iii. Vice-Chair Rodriguez- We could reach out and inform RSO's on what is available through KnightConnect. In this way, RSO's can prepare themselves for the following school year.
 - iv. Pro-Temp- It is a good time to reach out to Kort and work together for promotion.
 - v. Senator Regan- They do events every year with RSO's and we can advertise our fiscal workshops through them. We should make financial training and the authorized officer course more appealing through graphics.
 - vi. Chair Custis- Off of Ryan, that is a great idea to make the authorized officer course easier.
 - vii. Senator Regan- I did not mean to make the authorized officer course easier. It has been revamped recently. We should email the knight emails of authorized officers about what we have to offer.
 2. FAO Pamphlet for future committee members
 - i. Would have certain questions to ask

FINANCIAL ALLOCATIONS FOR ORGANIZATIONS

1. Net 30, etc.
2. Chair Rembaum- Questions:
 - a. How are you distributing promo items
 - b. If this is a bill, how are you distributing funds
3. On the note of intimidation, how can we make the process smoother for RSO's:
 - a. Chair Custis- It seems to be common sense. Smile and be courteous.
 - b. Pro-Temp- Put phone down. Show interest and be actively engaged. There's no way to eliminate the intimidation but try to show that you care.
 - c. Vice-Chair Rodriguez- Start off with "how are you." Ask questions pertaining to their specific RSO. Show them that we are not a bank. Be interested, be personal.
 - d. Senator Regan- When joining a committee, you learn best by sitting back and slowly participating in it. Respectfulness is not something you can teach.
- ii. Helpful "hints and tricks" for being an FAO member
 1. Engage in friendly conversation, etc.
3. Offer to help RSO's with event attendance
 - i. Promote RSO events within SG to help
 1. Senator Regan- I enjoyed this and miss it. We had flyers from RSO's in the workroom that were funded by SG. RSO's would use SG to help get the word out.
 2. ORS Rep- Off of Ryan, it is your duty as a senator in touch with an RSO to be their advocate. We should advertise the events that we are funding.
 3. Chair Rembaum- We could start putting the word out in our announcements.
 4. Chair Custis- We should attend the events that we fund. This will leave a lasting impression. Attending events will make things easier and more fruitful in the long run.
 5. Senator Regan- Show face and attend meetings of RSO's. I have shown up to events before and found that RSO's are glad to have us at their meetings. Let RSO's know that they can contact building managers to post flyers and Kort to have their flyers advertised. We know resources that can be beneficial.
 6. ORS Rep- We can point RSO's to other RSO's who we have helped in the past. This could inspire collaboration.

FINANCIAL ALLOCATIONS FOR ORGANIZATIONS

4. Create a form that RSO's can send that tells us how there event or project went
 - i. Helps create more of "friendship" with RSO's and us
 - ii. KnightConnect
 1. ORS Rep- On the post funding form, we can add a question about turnout and success. Rather than a whole other form.
 2. Chair Custis- Off ORS Rep, we can add a section with pictures.
 3. Senator Regan- Emphasize that it is optional. Don't seem like 'Big Brother' looking over their shoulder. Simplify it, make it a part of the post funding form. RSO's get confused as is.
