- i. Have a section that explains the unknown areas based off of the surveys. Whether it's a website or a brochure.
- ii. Acosta: Input dates that you need to know regarding elections.
- iii. Bonefont: Include individuals running for office, affiliation, platform points. Even if it's one point but including information will assist students.
- iv. Chair Galloway: Brochure or Google Classroom?
 1. We can do both to grab attention.
 2. Acosta: I like the newsletter type idea.
 3. Bonefont: Important to get data from the survey first, once we have all the information it can be easier to see how it will be presented to the students.
 4. Chair Galloway: Over summer virtual is good, for fall physical copies will work. Until we receive all the information and data let's not set any decisions in stone.

11. New Business

- a. Newsletter categories will be updated in three weeks:
 - i. Current members may be reassigned

13. Miscellaneous Business

- Vice Chair Elections

- Senator Acosta:

- Questioning:

- Bonefont: Can you expand on your experiences that go along with your initiatives?

- a. I am aware of how important it is to have representation in Tallahassee, if we can collaborate with other universities we can achieve that.

- Bonefont:

- a. I like your idea of how to go about advertising the information for the voter guides.

- Debate:

- Bonefont: He has done great work as a senator so far in his short time. He will be a great support to Chair Galloway. Vote for Acosta!
 - Rembaum: I think everyone should vote highly in favor of Acosta!

- Vote: 8-0-0 Acosta is the new Vice Chair to GAP!
