- Tarbel: Would say the same, preciously disagreed with Farrow but were able to come with a solution. I feel Daianne and I have a strong working relationship we were on the same page. Is willing to find a compromise
 - Grodi: How would you describe the role of vice chair in one word?
 - Tarbel: Support
 - Desai: Advocacy
 - DiGiacomo: Daianne spoke about about
 - Dasai: Speak with Daianne to see what she wants to do and what I want to do, look at it and debate to see how she would fit in this new task. Want to try to be out there and get attention to speakers, bring them to speak to us from in and outside of campus
 - Create family like atmosphere.
 - Make sure no matter what happens, Desai would be able to complete task successfully.
 - Tarbel: Guide senators to make sure initiatives are being completed, communicate what needs to be done, alleviate the chairs taks, bring senators, and speakers, ask other senators
 - Giorgi: Name one weakness and how that might affect your work
 - Tarbel: Make sure everything is submitted in a timely fashion, make sure
 - Desai: Weakness is over worrying, tend to overthink things, try to keep a steady pace and does not want to spread himself too thin. Hope to work on self about that and build a better relationship with the committee
 - Debate:
 - Custis: Won't be voting but both showed you are fit for the position
 - Voting
 - Desai : 0-6-8, no majority vote
 - Move to go informal
 - More questioning about why you want to run, previous experience with leadership and what is your time commitment like
 - Move to reconsider vote
 - Vote:
 - Desai: 8-3-2
7. Announcements from the Chair
 - a. Schedule 1 on 1 to speak about initiatives
 - b. Presidential Search Committee Meeting Tuesday, November 5th in the Morgridge International Reading Center at 9:00 AM
 - Those who will be going to day at the capitol won't make it
 - last chair was very involved, we need people to take notes
