 - Brodie:
 - Welcome to Senate!
 - I'm excited to get to know you all, and to see what great ways you will impact the student body this year.
 - I need the new Speaker and Pro Tempore to stay behind in this meeting for a few minutes.
 - I know this is an exciting time, and you want to get started right away, but I also want you to relax next week during Spring Break, and I want you to focus on preparing for finals. You are students first, and I would hate for some of you to not be able to participate in Senate next Semester because your grades made you ineligible.

 - Hello all, and welcome to your roles as Senators!
 - Announcements need to be in the Senate minutes document by 6 p.m. on Thursdays. This includes leadership. You may still edit your announcement during Senate; this allows the Speaker to know who is going to need time to speak. If you have no announcements to make, put the word "None" by your bullet.
 - As a reminder, this is an office with a diverse population of students and faculty. As you're meeting new people within the office and the Senate, please make sure that you're introducing yourself with your pronouns and respecting the pronouns of others even when they are not present. Additionally, there are people within both Senate and the office, myself included, who use multiple pronouns, so please make sure when talking about these individuals you are not just defaulting to the pronoun you are comfortable with. If you have any questions regarding pronouns or inclusivity, please feel free to email me or stop by the office. In addition to being Student Assistant, I am also a member of Lavender Council, an LGBTQ+ organization on campus, and I am happy to provide additional resources or insight to you.
 - If you run into any issues regarding your Senate email and/or password in the next week, please reach out to me. I'm happy to help resolve any issues.
 - I'm excited to be working with you all this year!
