5. Announcements from the Chair-
 - a. We are seeing our first sanction review today, please look over the cheat sheet if anyone has any questions please ask now. There is one RSO in person and the second was a mistake on Senate's part, because we approved them and then went back and denied them as they were getting items to donate which we couldn't fund which led to communication issues between Senate and the ASFBO. We will be going over post funding forms after sanction reviews.
6. Announcements from the Vice-Chair-
 - a. Hello everyone, this week I stood in for the CRT rep. If anyone is interested in becoming the CRT rep just let me or Chair Malakoff know, CRT meets at 2:30 PM on Mondays. Additionally, I've been working on three pieces of legislation which will be seen on first reading tonight, and remanded to LJR. Of which one has to do with updating statutes, and was something I worked on with AG Soto. AG Soto has also updated Title 8 which should be up on the website this upcoming Tuesday. I have

- previous treasurer and was the one that made the FAO request. We were fiscally trained.
- b. Questions:
 - i. Senator Mitchinson: Did you receive the Reversion date on the initial email?
 - 1. Yes, but it was not said during the meeting.
 - ii. Senator Kaltenbaugh: Do you know what day you were seen in committee?
 - 1. Around December 1st.
 - iii. Senator Kaltenbaugh: Can you show the ORS exit slip that was sent to you?
 - 1. Yes, let me pull that up.
 - iv. Senator Kaltenbaugh: How quickly did an accountant contact you?
 - 1. Dec 17th
 - v. Mitchinson: What prohibited you from using the funding to purchase the promo items?
 - 1. Personal mistake, went off the fiscal year end instead of the reversion date. Club did not prioritize promo items because of covid.
 - c. Debate: The RSO was aware of the reversion date; it was a personal mistake. Because of covid we should sanction them lower.
 - d. Motion to Sanction at 15%: 5-0-0
 - e. Motion to Remove the RSO from IISE: Approved by GC.
 - ii. FAO52-161: OrlandoAgainstCorona
 - 1. Reverted $1122.72 out of $1122.72, 100%
 - a. Speech: There was an error on the side of communicating between the FAO committee, A&SF, and ORS. FAO gave them funding for Promo Items. The Promo items were going to be donated and spending policy doesn't allow for funding charity items. The committee then went back and declined the allocation but this was not communicated to the A&SF office.
 - b. Questioning:
 - i. Mitchinson: Was it a promo or event allocation?
 - 1. Not quite sure.
 - c. Debate:
 - i. Kaltenbaugh: the allocation type doesn't really matter as either way it's a mistake and we shouldn't sanction them. We have to vote no in order to not sanction.
 - d. Move to sanction at 30%: 0-4-0

 - i. SB 52-85: FAO Bill for ASME at UCF
 - 1. Senator Communication:
 - 2. Suggestions: "Please update the financial training, it was absolutely horrible. The powerpoint format was very confusing and counterintuitive for financial regulations. This information should be presented in a formal sectioned document. The documents we were provided with didn't include as much detail as needed. An example of that would be what I noted above about who is responsible for ordering and payment to the vendors for each half."
 - ii. SB 52-86 FAO Bill for Chabad Jewish Student Group

 - 2. Suggestions: None.
