    - i. Chair yielded to Vice Chair Layman-Williams
    - ii. Christina Garafola - Seat 2
      - 1. Speech: Been in SG for 2 years, used to be interim and assistant chief. Last year was a busy time for me, especially with the transition to online school, but I am excited to return to the position. Best experiences include being appointed the second time during the summer and I had everything planned as an assistant. I want to make sure new students (including transfers) have an easier time adjusting to normal life. I want to do events to introduce the branch, so that students know what we do especially during COVID.
      - 2. Questioning:
        - a. Vice Chair Mitchinson: What was your favorite part of being on the judicial council last year?
          - i. Seeing Jessica and Amanda killed it! The turnout was amazing and I enjoyed seeing the collaboration in the branch.
        - b. Mittan: You mentioned that you'll be taking more difficult classes this upcoming semester and with a job as well, could you describe your time management and how you plan to manage your time if confirmed as a justice?
          - i. Answer: I am reducing my time to 3 days a week, and school time with the student government always has a priority over work.
        - c. Jacobs: How would you describe your leadership style? How will you implement your leadership style in this position?
          - i. Answer: Firm, but spirit of the law. Rules are there to go off of, but you never know what the other student is going through. A great example is parking appeals, students parking in handicapped. One time there was a misunderstanding, and that showed an example of being spirit of the law.

- d. Huerta: You mentioned that you had a hard time putting in the work and time into the judicial branch. Are you taking online classes in fall?
  - i. Answer: No
- e. Huerta: How will you make sure last term won't happen again?
  - i. Answer: I was struggling because I couldn't study with others, and professors wouldn't respond to email. Going back will help me be in SARC, SI, office hours, etc. I'm gonna make it work just like before the online transition.
- f. Bonefont: Did you receive any criticism or negative feedback from the Chief Justice during your last term?
  - i. Answer: No

3. Debate:

- a. Bonefont: In favor, it is important to have some experience so they can continue to work. I am satisfied with their adaptation in personal struggles and identification for opportunities to grow.
