 - Hola senado,
 - A few announcements today: First of all, we met on Monday and discussed our RSO outreach. Our members were each tasked with sending outreach emails to RSOs by tomorrow. Many of them have already sent their emails so huge thanks to them and we have even received some replies.
 - In an effort to allow RSOs to get their new boards elected before they join us, we are going to keep the applications for RSO Membership to our caucus open until the 3rd week of fall semester. However, we will prioritize the RSOs who reach out to us by our original deadline of July 23rd.
 - In another conversation we had during the meeting, we introduced what we may be doing to work toward one of our initiatives which is helping undocumented students at UCF in a multitude of ways. You can read more about this in our agenda. Huge thanks to Vice Chair Boisson for her notes.
 - On that note: there is a congressional briefing on higher education and immigration reform led by Rep Joaquin Castro (D-TX) happening next Thursday at 3PM. If you want to join, please let me know. There are limited seats.
 - Please join us for our meetings as we also want to discuss how cultural issues like the Cuba crisis may affect our students and how to help them soon.
 - I will be meeting with Director of HSI Culture and Partnerships, Dr. Muñoz soon. Thanks to Chief of Staff Lopez for making that connection.
 - I want to thank Vice Chair Bertram for creating and hosting the first ever caucus leadership meeting.
 - Today's pin is a whale shark in honor of shark week. Whale sharks are the biggest fish in the sea and they are also endangered because of human litter in the sea. Sharks are nice so long as you don't threaten them, don't be scared of them! Protect them!
 - That's all, vamos Knights!

- Senate Deliberations
 - Chair Spaulding: In light of recent events I would like to touch on a sensitive subject. For those of you who don't know, Italy recently went up against England at the UEFA(Union of European Football Associations) EURO 2020 Game and won 3-2 due to missed goal shots on England's team. Three amazing players by the name of Bukayo Saka, Marcus Rashford, and Jadon Sancho were bombarded with racist comments across social media. Some individuals even went as far as to deface Marcus Rashford's mural which was honoring his work to end child food insecurity. While there has been an overwhelming amount of support for these individuals, it does not make what happened okay. I want to encourage you all to speak up if you see any kind of racism taking place no matter the race, gender, or sexual orientation and also to continue to advocate against racist ideologies, whatever they may be. Right now, we are in a position of not only privilege, but power to help educate the uneducated, so please take advantage of this opportunity that you've all worked hard for and continue to use it to spread peace, equality, and love.
