 - Hello all! I would like to thank everyone who assisted me in Election Commission interviews. I am excited to see all that they will accomplish.
 - Deputy Chief of Staff (Xely Martinez sgadeputychief@ucf.edu)
 - Hello Senate! Other than assisting Vice-President Wilson. This week I worked alongside ILA Huerta in the planning and preparation of the Student Government Leadership Council. Application will be available on Knight Connect June 28th for freshmen, sophomores and transfer juniors.
 - Attorney General (Jan Soto, sga_ag@ucf.edu)
 - Good evening Senate! Congratulations to all of the newly appointed Caucus chairs.
 - This week, I met with Mark Gumble to discuss my appointment to the Admissions & Selections Committee. There, I would aid in looking over the denied applications of prospective students, medical withdrawals, late withdrawals, etc. I will also be collaborating with the Administration in discussing updates of the relevant policies.
 - Additionally, I also sat on Election Commission interviews with Chief of Staff Lopez, Deputy Chief of Staff Martinez, Senate President Anunobi, and ILA Huerta. Looking forward to seeing the appointees go through the Senate in the coming weeks.

- I also met with Senator Mittan and ELA Gonzalez to discuss the implementation of the Burnett Honors College into Dean Meetings! This is a great initiative that would address the concerns of over 2,000 students and many Senators here today seem to be interested. If you have any questions regarding this project, feel free to contact Senator Mittan or ELA Gonzalez.
 - Today, you will all be seeing Internal Bill 53-04. Vice Chair Mitchinson and myself have been working on this initiative. Primarily this would allow the Senate to hold future Attorney General's accountable in updating statutes in a timely manner. I have sponsored this Bill and I look forward to having it pass Second Reading!
 - Finally, during this past week, I advised a number of students on Golden Rule Procedures and their statutory rights and responsibilities.
 - Director of Student Affairs (JP Vartanian, sgastaffairs@ucf.edu)
 - This week the Diversity and Inclusion Coordinator, the Outreach Coordinator, and I met with Chair Tran to better understand how SBA works and how the Executive Branch can collaborate with the committee.
 - I plan to start reaching out to the Senators from each College beginning in July to understand student concerns and views from all UCF colleges.
 - Academic Affairs Coordinator (Brandon Greenaway, sgaacademics@ucf.edu)
 - Hi everyone, I hope all is well! To those of you that may not know, one of Meg and Austin's main platform points is planning the TEDxUCF conference, which I am responsible for and looking forward to working on. However, planning such a big event cannot be done by myself, so I am excited to announce the TEDxUCF Committee, which will include 1 senator from each college. This is to ensure that we have a wide range of disciplines being represented. Please decide amongst yourselves who you would like to represent your college in this committee, and this representative will be responsible for collecting suggestions and ideas from all of the Senators in their college to ensure that all voices are heard. For example, the College of Sciences represents a lot of different majors so it is important that the representative hears from all of their fellow Senators. The goal of this initial committee will be to figure out the logistical stuff that is necessary to plan this event, such as a theme, ideas for speakers, etc, which is necessary to apply for the TEDx license. In the fall, I hope to open this committee up to anyone that is willing to help plan the event. Please discuss with your fellow Senators in your college regarding who will be the representative, and fill out the sign-up sheet that I linked in the agenda by tomorrow at 5pm. I know that there are GroupMe chats with your colleges for Dean meetings, so that might be a good place for you all to discuss this. To the representatives that sign up, I will be sure to send an email at the beginning of next week regarding the next steps we will take. Please let me know if you have any questions regarding this.

 - The committee saw two individuals with reversions this week... The First individual we saw received a CRT allocation, CRT 52-725 and reverted a 100% of their funding however the committee decided to not sanction the individual and remove them from fiscal probation. The decision to not sanction was unanimous, due to the individual receiving a grant to cover the registration cost. The next individual also received a CRT allocation, CRT 52-687, and reverted 100% of their funding as well. We decided to sanction them at a 30%, due to them not communicating with the A&SF office after they incorrectly submitted their forms.
 - The fiscal committee chairs and vice chairs also met this week and talked about creating a resource for Senators and RSOs, to help them understand the financial training and tips on some of the common mistakes we see in the committees.
 - On another note ORS will be going to the Judicial Branch tomorrow to take part in a sanction appeal, if anyone is interested in watching that process, you can reach out to me!
 - Lastly, we also have open seats and will continue to see sanctioning hearings within the next month as well as look at Title 8, if you are interesting in joining or watching in on a meeting we meet Thursdays at one!

 - Good evening Senators.
 - In my busyness with the Pulse Vigil last week, I missed out on my queer history lesson with you all, so my apologies for that. Tonight, I will be highlighting Bayard Rustin, an openly gay man who not only closely advised Martin Luther King Jr., but also fought tirelessly to bring the AIDS crisis to the attention of the NAACP. Bayard was an activist at the forefront of both the civil rights movement and the fight for equality for LGBTQ+ people. He was a key organizer in the March on Washington and continued his advocacy work until he died in 1987. If you'd like to read more about Bayard, you can do so here.
 - As a reminder, our next Diversity Seminar will be July 2nd from 1-3 p.m. in the Charge On Chamber. It will cover Gender and retouch on Privilege. If you have any questions, please reach out to me

- If you are elected to caucus Chair or Vice Chair, or you are just a member of a caucus who does not mind reminding the Chair or Vice Chair, I do need minutes to be sent to me after each meeting, just like committees. Thank you to those caucuses who have already sent me minutes.
