 1. Duque nominated himself
 2. Duque accepted nomination
 - ii. Speeches
 1. Duque: Two pillars he would like to run on: advocacy and engagement. Work with RSOs to create Intersectional programming that will include other caucuses. Create a hispanic calender, partner with other RSOs. Create a hispanic caucus award for students who have excelled throughout the year. Really wants to advocate for undocuemented students, accessibility for scholarships. Work with student legal services and other partnerships. Work with exec
 - iii. Questioning
 1. Block: do you have a list of RSOs you want to reach out to?
 - a. No, finding a list if not create that list.
 2. Boisson: Would this also apply for other undocumented students who are not hispanic?
 - a. Absolutely. Whether or not they are not hispanic, we will still represent them and include them.
 3. Blocke: In terms of gaining more scholarships, would you work with scholarship committee or create new scholarships?
 - a. Work with brandon greenaway, academic affairs and include other investors and spread awareness. The requirements are hard for other undocumented students to accomplish.
