 - 1. Sen. Foster
 - ii. Speeches
 - 1. Sen. Foster - "Accessible not Easy" Orientation Team Leader, PLC - only candidate universally recommended, Reference letter from Trustee, Vice Chair of Black Caucus. Passion for E&A, member of Womxns Caucus and love volunteering with that group. Passion is important related to experience. Driven to put people into successful positions. Need to have the best people in every position, across branches. Level-headed, calm person, works well across branches. Tabling: We should table to support students' knowledge about different positions to bolster SG. EC: work more closely with EC, workshops throughout the Fall, having the Supervisor attend more E&A Meetings. Title VI: Work with Senators and EC to update and review Title VI, get feedback from all over. Maybe using a qualtrics form to get feedback from outside of SG.
 - iii. Questioning
 - 1. Wangen - How do you plan to get feedback from people on Title VI, being that it is 28 pages?
 - a. Want to create a document, a cheat sheet of concerns that we can distribute to get feedback easily.
 - 2. Guel - Do you have time?
 - a. PLC requires a lot, but I will be able to do those, SG is my priority and my passion.

3. Hall - Do you see a way for each Caucus to have a role in the confirmation process?
 - a. Yes, having caucuses and especially ex-officio members being aware of the positions and reaching out to their connections.
4. Guel - How will you maintain your integrity during this process?
 - a. Having strong mentors helps me maintain integrity. I love to hold myself accountable, and always seek feedback.
5. Borges - Do you plan on voting during confirmations?
 - a. I plan on abstaining, unless needed otherwise.
6. Wangen - How will you connect with EC?
 - a. I want to advocate for each Commissioner to have emails that will help us communicate with each of them, instead of just through the Supervisor.
7. Almenar - How will you plan to vet appointments?
 - a. I want to ask tough questions, and hearing answers to those questions define the character of appointments.

iv. Debate

1. Holmes - Thank you for running, your documents and answers are very concise and informative, seeing you stay calm and collected, seeing different perspectives, make me support your election.
2. Question from Borges - Would you be comfortable having long meetings during confirmations?
