2. Speech:
  - a. "Registration only. Not utilizing hotel, but, Airbnb (not allowed per SG Code)."
  - b. Requested funding for an Airbnb, not eligible according to our fiscal policy. CRT did not inform them at the time. Got full funding for a grad student.
3. Questions:
  - a. Chair Wangen
    - i. Did CRT understand it was Airbnb when it was brought to them?
  - b. Yamilet
    - i. Yes they did, but understands it was stated in the financial training, apologizes for the mistake
  - c. Chair Wangen
    - i. The original quote you sent to CRT was with a hotel. Did you submit a new one?
  - d. Yamilet
    - i. In the proposal it was stated if it was a hotel room she would be splitting it with someone which also was not allowed
4. Debate:
  - a. Senator Temple
    - i. Not seeing anything in the CRT Agenda regarding an Airbnb
  - b. Chair Wangen
    - i. Even with the other one of it stating it was being split into 2 which we also can't do so is confused
  - c. Senator Temple
    - i. Just as conflicted as there were errors on both sides, should not be punished too severely, lower sanction possibly and or a warning
  - d. Senator Gomez
    - i. Another 5% Sanction would be appropriate, doesn't want to punish but it is important for them to learn
  - e. Chair Wangen
    - i. A Lot of miscommunication on our side, and if they never saw it was Airbnb.
  - f. Pro-Temp Ciresi
    - i. Conflicted on whether to sanction or 5% bc we
