    - ii. Speeches
      - 1. I'm an event management and sociology major with a leadership studies minor under the College of Hospitality Management. I have a lot of experience that makes me a fit for this chair position, especially in the fiscal aspect. There are some necessary relationships that are integral to this position, and I will ensure that I form them strongly. These relationships are with the accountants, director of ASFBO, comptroller, and discal leadership. I also have some ORS Goals. I want to ensure RSOs and individuals being called into ORS get at least 48 hours of notice for their first meeting. I will set up a schedule to contact RSOs about their Verification of Purchases Forms, making sure they're notified by their reversion date that the due date is approaching. In addition, I will make sure that all RSOs receiving funding are being represented by a senator or know they are represented by the DSR to lower the amount of difficulty they have with the funding process. I will also communicate more with Judicial about the fiscal appeals process and ensure their meetings remain open for the full duration. On top of fiscal goals, I have ORS goals. I will work to make sure that senators and the student body have the opportunity to become educated about the Activity & Service Fee budget, how it works, why things changed, and why certain decisions were made in response to last year. I will also work with the Student Body President and other SG Agents to request an increase in A&SF from the Florida Board of Governors. I mentioned this previously with the relationship to fiscal leadership. I want to set up funding workshops with a variety of groups, I did some last year. And, I know workday is always a struggle, so I want keep discussing and checking in on the progression of the charts and data on Workday that were promised when fiscal leadership met with the CFO in November.

i. Questioning

2. Temple: With regard to your endeavor to increase the A&SF budget fee?
  - a. Borges: At Day at the Capitol, we communicated with our lobbyist, and they talked to the Chancellor of the Board of Governors, and they thought it was possible. SB President would make a committee, and it's a long process.
3. Temple: Do you for to see a potential future relationship with GAP committee?
  - a. Borges: This will include all committees and branches. This is one thing that Daniella wanted to talk to everyone, and I am sure GAP will be involved.
4. Temple: In general, seeing as you are the returning ORS chair, how will you improve?
  - a. Borges: We were able to automate a lot, so I can help transition CRT and FAO chairs. A lot of my previous goals can be done now due to timing. ORS is like the internal fiscal committee, where we oversee the other two and assist them.

5. Yalamanchili: Are you going to continue to existing policy of reducing sanctions if an RSO is good at communication? And what is your opinion of sanctions if turnover is slightly over 20%?
  - a. Borges: I am here to guide you guys, it is up to you guys. If you guys like the precedent or want to change it, I will oblige. In the committee transition binder it shows what last session did based on different scenarios.

iii. Debate

1. Temple: I will be voting in favor of Borges. I have worked with him and saw him in this position, which is extremely beneficial. I can see the initiatives of Borges are very well thought out. And the policy side of me is also driving me to vote for him. I encourage you all to vote for him.
2. Kennaugh: I will also be voting in favor. I learned a lot from just debating in pro temp elections. You are on the right track, clearly in good conditions.
3. Yalamanchili: Borges did a great job as previous ORS chair, and I see no reason to not reelect him.
