 - i. Nominations
 - 1. Senator Traynor
 - 2. Senator Hurst
 - ii. Speeches
 - 1. Hurst: I'm not a senator from the last session, but I am in this session. I have a lot of experience working in teams and working in a position to create environments to make good ones that will help each other grow. I want to learn this position, and I hope you can help me grow with this position and make it helpful for all students as much as it can. I also want to improve the stuff that they are focused on. We can help them find the resources they need.
 - iii. Questioning
 - 1. Carter: Is there one experience you can point out that would help you in this position?
 - a. Hurst: I was a manager with some not-so-great people, and I had to work with them to create a less hostile environment and, instead, create one that was welcoming for other colleagues and customers for 2 years. I'm still in touch with them, and they are doing great!
 - iv. Debate
 - 1. Campbell: I will be voting for Traynor. I was only there for last session but he was SBA chair. Traynor was extremely good at his job. He put so much time into this work on top of his job. He has a proven track record of listening and doing hard things that other people would break down doing. In the past, eternal knights legislation is split between the members of the committees. However,

Traynor wrote all the eternal knights proclamation himself. Him being able to have the will and strength do it on his own is amazing.

2. Carter: Campbell's debate was moving, and I am new. I will be voting for Hurst. I am uneasy about having the same returning senators running for the same position, so new senators can get more experience. Coming from someone who also worked in management, these skills can be transferred.

v. Voting

1. 3-1-2 , Sen. Hurst is elected Chair.
- b. This day in history: In 491 CE, Flavius Anastasius becomes emperor of the Eastern Roman Empire. His reign would see great austerity and prosperity, but would give way to the ambitious reign of Justinian I.
