6. Announcements from the Chair-
 - a. Good afternoon, everyone!
 - b. Today we will go over the Student Priority Survey framework and discuss it, as well as introduce some methods of distributing the survey. Moreover, I wanted to discuss with you all what initiatives GAP could engage in during the summer, seeing as we won't be able to do much about DATC as we collect survey results.
 - c. OTD
 - i. 1863 german socialist party did a thing
 - ii. In 1863, the precursor to the German Social Democratic Party, the General German Worker's Association, or the Allgemeiner Deutscher Arbeiter Verein, was founded.
 - iii. In 1998, the Good Friday Agreement is accepted via popular referendum in Northern Ireland, bringing to an end The Troubles.
 - d. Liverpool Facts
 - i. 25th of may 18 years since instanbul
 - ii. On 25 May, it will have been 18 years since the legendary Miracle of Istanbul, when Liverpool came back from a 3 goal deficit in the first half of the Champions League final (basically the Super Bowl of European soccer) and won the game against what amounted to the best AC Milan team of that time. (Think of it like the Vikings coming back 33 points against the Colts for my NFL fans out there).

13. New Business-
- a. Policy Advocacy Breakdown
 - b. Student Priority Survey Framework
 - i. Feedback On Priority Survey
 1. Duke: Is there a difference between previous and the current survey?
 2. Temple: Pretty much the same with the addition of one or two questions. Gives students leeway in answering questions, mix of required and optional questions. Very diverse body of people and getting all perspectives is important.
 3. Morisette: How will the survey be distributed?
 4. Temple: collaboration with communications to have the survey on the instagram, posters in the Student Union, and us! Involvement in other organizations!
 5. Morisette: There's a specific audience that should be specifically targeted (poli sci, pre law, etc), other campuses
 6. Temple: We should reach out, typically there is only about 100 responses. We are small but we can reach out elsewhere. Concern about non policy specific RSOs. College of sciences and other deans. ELA Richmond can help.
 7. Morisette: Links on outgoing emails to students
 8. Temple: will work on that. Reach out to your deans and RSOs. Beginning of June survey will be live
 9. Duke: QR codes across campus in order to get more people
 10. Temple: ELA Richmond can help.
 11. Richmond: Working on getting in touch with the deans. Senate newsletter would be a good place for this once communications is confirmed.
 12. Temple: Will reach out to SBA chair.
 13. Richmond: SBA will be involved
 14. Temple: who wants to reach out to RSOs?
 15. Richmond: is amazing and bringing it UCF Dems and Mock Trial
 16. Temple: Preston and Duke in YDSA, will YDSA bring responses?
 17. Duke: some people will

- 18. Yalamanchili: social justice RSOs and their senators will create feedback. Senators, contact your RSOs!! It's not just political RSOs we need, social justice, pre professional, etc.
 - 19. Temple: We keep talking about political RSOs, but people gravitate more toward identity RSOs and the more diverse answers will be from there. This summer, establish connections with RSOs and get the survey going!
 - 20. Preston: diversify!
 - 21. Temple: Look through the survey and see what adjustments need to be made. Once communications is confirmed we will send it!
- c. Bills
 - i. None.
 - d. Resolutions
 - i. None.
14. Member Discussion-
- a. Legislation, Initiatives on Current Events
 - i. As was discussed in Thursday's meeting, there's been a lot of developments in this state, and many such developments directly impact students here at UCF. From the gender-affirming care bans to the ban on spending for DEI programs, students will in some ways be negatively impacted, and as Senators we need to make sure that their concerns are heard and addressed accordingly.
 - 1. Discussion
 - a. Temple: In discussion with Chair Campbell, the initiative to draft legislation to advocate for UCF students regarding this issue had been started. Contact Temple for further information to be involved.
15. Miscellaneous Business-
- a. Yalamanchili: Today is Empire Day in the Star Wars universe. Long live the Empire!!
