            2. As stated last week, we will begin drafting the legislation for the Election Day Initiative, which will both contribute to the broader initiative set about by Exec and Senate, but also give you guys a better feel for how legislation is formatted.

            3. This legislation will thusly contain information that will answer the following questions:

                a. What is the purpose of excusing students from class to vote?

                b. Are there examples of other schools doing this? How do they mitigate confounding factors (ie alternative voting methods, class schedules?)

                c. How will it impact voter turnout among students?

            4. These are questions that no doubt will be asked by higher administration when we approach them.
