- Wants to have ex-officio seats- expand representation in the caucuses.
- Tabling- so much exposure comes from this. Black Wednesday is a perfect opportunity to do this. Organizations have pageants and showcases that we should support.
- Black History Month: Black Business Showcase
- “Cultures Around the World”: Collaboration with other caucuses
Black Owned Food Trucks
- A Barbecue in Collaboration with MSC
- Juneteenth: Recognize it on campus
- Natural Hair Products: I use it and want to continue to vouch for. Want to see the sales and see if we should expand to shower caps and bonnets; or combs and brushes
- Questioning
  - Holmes: What would delegating tasks look like for you?
    - Datilus: Communications to the vice chair and some aspects of the initiatives are delegated to members. With natural hair products, create another form for this. In regard to tabling, do this regularly and delegate the tasks that everyone suggests and contributes attendance to these events. Funding Workshop would be down with myself and the vice chair. Drafting emails would be assisted with other individuals
  - Butler: What do you believe would be the hardest part about the position?
    - Datilus: My weakness is with my delivery through writing. Nervous about writing the resolution, the technicalities I might struggle with.
  - Butler: You talked about delegation. What would you do besides delegating tasks?
    - Datilus: I would be in communication with administration, OSI director Shane, and Rick Falco for the Student Union when coordinating events.
  - Carter: Which initiatives would you prioritize first?
    - Juneteenth is the main priority and the Black Business Showcase
