11. New Business:

a. Chair Election

i. Senator DiChiara

1. Speech

a. In College of Innovation and Education. Half Puerto rican and Half Italian. Apart of Greek life as a secretary and a first generation student. Initiatives are inspired by the past chair. Catch up on merch, graphics, etc. Latin/Hispanic Market Day, scholarships, work with the RSO, Greek, and other Latin'Hispanic communities. Open to criticism and new initiatives. Confident and new, but knows they can learn and grow in this position.

2. Questioning

a. Lazo: What kind of leadship experience do you have that specific Latin'Hispanic issues or further your experience here?

i. DiChiara: In highschool sat as VP for Latin/Hispanic Association. Focused on different sub groups and want to transfer my skills from there. I am pretty new to UCF community and want to add more experience under my belt.

b. Senator Holmes: How would you reach out to RSO and Greek organizations?

i. DiChiara: Currently in Greek life and speaks regularly to Latin'Hispanic Greek life. Have been able to attend these events and support them. There are alot of Latin'Hispanic organizations here, but knows that it is still my job to reach out to organizations that I'm not apart of.

3. Debate

a. Sandlin: I think that Senator DiChiara is well qualified. Should initiative in their speech and their answers. I trust their vision and what they can accomplish; therefore, I will be voting in favor.

4. Vote

a. 4-0-2: Chair DiChiara
