    c. SB266
        i. Camp: When it comes to SAS compliance won't be affected. Advocacy organizations that ae funded by SAS on campus will be heavily affected though. We'll just have to work a lot harder to advocate.
    d. Graduation Accessibility
        i. Khazei: I don't really have any updates, I got an email from Adam Meyer to speak to Speaker Holmes. I'll let you more know details when I get them.
        ii. Camp: Please forward that email to the disability caucus email

11. Member Discussion:
    a. None
12. Miscellaneous Business:
    a. Icebreaker: What was your reason for joining Disability Caucus?
        i. Sandlin: I joined because I wanted to hit the ground running on advocacy work. I have friends and family that are disabled, it's important that people can navigate this campus and get the accommodations they need.
        ii. Kennaugh: I joined because I don't have the accommodations I need, and the lack of accessibility to accommodations at UCF is really embarrassing and needs to improve iii. Duke: I joined the caucus in the 54th session with Senator Campbell, they convinced me to join. I wanted and still want to get more involved in advocacy work.
        iv. Lacasse: I joined because of the underrepresentation of disabled voices and as someone with close friends whose disabilities affect their everyday life, and who has my own disability I've grappled with it means a lot to me

v. Khazei: I have a friend who is half-deaf and he gave me the idea to join because I know how much people can struggle with fitting in with a disability and I want to change that and make disabled people feel included and their voice be heard.

vi. Camp: I was encouraged by former Senator Tache. I am disabled, growing up I went to my mother's office a lot since she's a speech pathologist. My mother started getting more and more into advocacy and does a lot of advocacy. This became part of me over time, this caucus felt like a way I could better people's lives and be more of a voice.

b. Icebreaker: What is something that gives you comfort?

i. Sandlin: Driving late at night

ii. Kennaugh: Driving late as night as well

iii. Lacasse: My friends and partner iv. Hurst: Hanging with a person I can talk to

v. Duke: My cat and literally all of the Twilight movies

vi. Camp: Orange, and orange and vanilla

vii. Hameed: My friends got me these pop toy pins for my birthday that I view as a good luck charm and as a place holder for them being here viii. Acosta: Cookies!
