- a. 55-22
  - i. Speech: My name is Matheus, Vice president of BRAZA, financially trained 23-24, whole purpose of Braza is to spread awareness of the Brazilian culture. Since its located in South America, people believe we speak Spanish, we speak Portuguese. We have a bunch of cultural events to spread what the Brazilian culture is all about. During tailgates, we play a variety of Brazilian music. We also support Brazilian restaurants such as a new restaurant that opened up near us and we are trying to spread the word on that. We are requesting for music for the tailgate on October 28th, requesting funding $300 for a Brazilian DJ. The reasoning that we don;t just request a UCF DJ is due to the fact that we want to represent the culture and want specifically a Brazilian DJ to align with our mission statement.
  - ii. Questioning:
    - 1. Rose: Any other financially trained officer?
      - a. RSO: Yes, our treasurer
    - 2. Chair: What happens if you guys dont get the reservation for the tailgate
      - a. RSO: One lot opens up 2 weeks ahead of the tailgate for reservations for RSOs on eventbrite, uses a code. 1 week later, it opens up for everyone. RSOs have an advantage, almost a guaranteed spot
    - 3. Chair: Can you promise that you wont have alcohol at the tailgate?
      - a. RSO: Yes
    - 4. DLEG: Do you understand the pfp?

Requesting $180 dollars for dominoes pizza order. 12 cheese pizzas, 6 pepperoni, and 4 liter bottles of coke. Reasons are for free food brings people to the club, most students are broke so providing food to student to help save money is important, target is to incentivize people to come in. Our mission is to bring freshman in and establish community and involvement. People who are looking for friends is also apart of our outreach. Our target is everyone, mostly students who don't have a community, not neccesarily just christians, and to guide them to find their niche here on campus.
