 - 1. Basically an art club meant to foster an environment in order to encourage our members. We focus a lot of on critiques in our meeting, focus a lot of team building to allow art majors to become friends with each others, also have a mentor mentee system, led to a lot of job opportunities. The two events, first one (27.99), is for shelves to display the art in our events where the art is being sold to the community, second event is an fall, art picnic to allow for some relaxation towards the end of the semester. Items include pumpkins and paint
