  - a. Torres: This seemed to come out of nowhere. From what I have seen so far, there has been no issue related to what the senator has proposed.
  - b. DiChiara: Would set the caucus severely behind. We already had a late start as a caucus to begin outreach, initiatives, and building good rapport.
  - c. Quiroga: No validity behind this bill, discards all DiChiara's hard work from this semester. I will not be supporting this bill.

- d. Lazo: I can understand where senator is coming from, however do not see the reason as it only affects DiChiara
  - e. Torres: Senator was just reconfirmed, as first project reconfirmed this seems unjust as there has not been issues with this in the past.
  - f. Lazo: This affects the future of caucus leadership, disenfranchising opportunities for so many other senators.
  - g. DiChiara: Felt targeted at this bill as it only affects myself, not sure how to further clarify or contribute to this conversation. Especially as the senator is not of a minority community, I know they can understand the feelings of us senators of a minority but never know our experience.
  - h. Torres: This senator has no place to comment on the experience of a senator within a minority.
  - i. DiChiara: Altercation at the end of last senate meeting, led me to believe this could be targeted. My perspective is that vice chairs are integral to a caucus and there is a reason that I advocated for them to be held just as accountable
  - j. Lazo: We have had such a productive and well run session, this bill has no foundation to persist.
  - k. DiChiara: Will get in touch with AG Moore to discuss this further. Pro Temp and Senate President are aware and it has been brought to their attention.
12. Miscellaneous Business:
    - a. Sexual and Health Fair: Nov. 1st 11:00-2:00
  13. Final Roll Call: 5/9
