  - a. Priorities for E&A legislation
    - a. Hameed: Why EA Rep
      - i. Kennaugh: Get EA more involved with other internal committees, we off on our own which has its benefits, but we should give our two cents two other committees, extra hands on deck
    - b. Hurst: Statutoraly, one person is nominated, the rotating seat thing is not a thing
      - i. It would get the committee more involved and diversify our capabilities
    - c. Hameed: On the perspective of a Rep, you'll have to have a lot communication to ensure the proper message is crossed, the roating seat may lead to different messages being said to the other committees
    - d. DiChiara: Getting EC in the loop/a rep? A town hall type event where those running for office can state answers to farther reaching issues, before the election, getting involved earlier
