- c. I know that it is Summer, and we are mostly virtual, but make sure that you are participating to the best of your abilities. Please make sure that you are asking questions and speaking in debate, as they are important when referring to the minutes. Most importantly, don't be afraid to make motions. I know that a few of you are new to the committee, to Senate, and just trying to figure things out. I promise you that the fastest way to understand the flow is to try, see what happens, and if you end up getting corrected that is completely okay! I'm still learning how to efficiently carry out my role as chair, so really, we can just all figure this out together. I don't say this to call anyone out or anything, especially because I brag so much about how opinionated and active everyone is during committee, but I noticed that it took a little while to get through last week's meeting due to people not making/accepting the motions.
- d. We will not have Senate next week, as I'm sure you all saw from Speaker Pohlmann's announcement in Teams, and so I'm going to go ahead and say that we will not be meeting for committee next week as the 4th is on Thursday as well.
