 - b. Confirmations:
 - i. Tyler Borges to Rosen College of Hospitality Management Seat #2
 - 1. Speech:
 - a. Borges: Hey guys, my name is Tyler Borges for Rosen Seat #2, I have served on many seats and committees. I know there's not a lot of time, I have initiatives and would love to focus on more such as fiscal workshops, one of my main initiatives was to have an Honors course at Rosen college. When I resigned, rosen seats would be empty and I see that they are no longer empty. Would love to communicate with Dean about initiatives.
 - 2. Questioning
 - a. Senator Escobar: Are you interested in committees or caucuses?
 - i. CRT and ORS, would like to join SBA; Maybe SBA
 - 3. Debate
 - a. Senator Beneche: Voting in favor, never spoke to former senator and always commenting on fiscal matters. 4th time around, fully trust him.
 - b. Senator Rudie: Love the idea of adding another honors course, voting in favor.
 - 4. Vote
 - a. 5-0-1 Approved by E&A
 - ii. Alyssia Wright of the Election Commission to serve as the Assistant Supervisor of Elections.
 - 1. Speech
 - a. Commissioner Wright A senior, majoring in health science. Been involved in a few orgs, cultural awareness director for BSU, been in ELC Freshman year and Election Commission. Volunteer at Orlando Health starting this month. Second year at EC, saw how vital EC is to the operations at student government. As you can see by my goal sheet, I plan to increase the voter count by utilizing the senate forum and figuring out new ways to increase voter turnout and count. In EC, we currently have a social committee, and they oversee planning social events for EC so that is how I will do that initiative. I will also create a positive and enjoyable experience for all candidates. Being the type of person I am, I will make sure the election runs efficiently. It would be an honor to be an assistant supervisor.

2. Questioning

- a. Senator Beneche: Are you excited to be in this role?
 - i. Commissioner Wright: Very excited.

3. Debate

- a. Pro Tempore Morissette: She is committed, spent time together with commissioner wright in SGLC. She commits to everything she does and is very active in past EC events and has trust she will complete her initiatives.
- b. Senator Escobar: Voting in favor, sees the candidate around the SG office and with her experience she is qualified
- c. Senator Beneche: Voting in favor, sharing the past sentiments of my other senators. In Black Caucus together and I see this commissioner quite often, know she is committed.

4. Vote

- a. 5-0-1, Approved by E&A

c. Non-Compliance: None.

11. Member Discussion-

a. Vice Chair Collazo

- i. VC Collazo: Due to some issues brought up to me by Supervisor Brown, I did take an administrative action and spoke to Senator Gaudio and asked for his resignation from the nomination as Chair. I will leave it up to the committee to choose how to proceed in terms of hosting elections
 - 1. Supervisor Brown: I believe it is important to allow the individual to speak their part, as they are not here right now
 - 2. Senator Beneche: Is it possible to renominate individuals?
 - a. Brodie & Collazo: Yes.

12. Miscellaneous Business-

a. Nominations and Election of the E&A Chair
