 2. Speech
 - a. RSO: This bill was for our trip to India. I have tons of screenshots on my laptop. The registration was the expected cost. The actual flight cost ended up significantly lower by a few thousand dollars. I assumed housing was free which it ended up not being so I used some of the extra funds from the flights to pay for the housing. Flights ended up being about half as expensive as expected.
 3. Questioning
 - a. Lazo: For clarification, the flights changed after you submitted the bill?
 - b. RSO: No the registration did. They asked me to pay an extra 300 dollars than expected. For the flights, they dropped significantly
 - c. Rose: What was the total amount contributed
 - d. RSO: $20,648.82 total
 - e. Varela: Documented evidence of flight decrees?
 - f. RSO: I have the old flights prices and I did the sum difference from what we paid
 - g. Varela: How much many did you save in flights

- h. RSO: $7,288.66 difference

 - j. RSO: No
 - k. Varela: Did you use the extra funds from flights to cover the extra registration?
 - l. RSO: Yes
 - 4. Debate
 - a. Grosso: Given that it seems all factors seem outside of their control I would support a 0% sanction
 - b. Varela: Have we seen this VPF yet?

 - 3. Questioning
 - a. Lazo: Who is your student advisor?

Lazo: Was there anybody else you could have asked for help on the ERF?

RSO: No, that's our only student advisor.

b. Grosso: Did your advisor give an explanation why they didn't sign/were not communicative for so long?

i. Not really, I'm not sure she saw it or responded to any of the old ones.

c. Chair Rose: Could you forward me any emails you sent to this individual when you were trying to contact them?

RSO: Yes

d. Lazo: Question to Chair Rose, is there any precedent for when there is a communication problem with the student advisor?

Chair Rose: I'm not sure if we've had this exact situation, but with things where there are outside advisors then we would usually not place blame on the RSO.

e. Grosso: Were there any other avenues you tried to get in contact with someone who could help you with the ERF form?

RSO: No, that was a mistake on our part.

f. Grosso: Would it be possible for you to also forward us the email your student advisor did eventually respond to?

RSO: Yes, but I don't have access to the email so it would have to be after this meeting

- c. RSO Expected Contribution: $12,020.69
- d. Supporting Documents

2. Speech

- a. I can give a summary, but the RSO should be present if they want to clarify anything. The RSO made all purchases and were reimbursed later by the business office. However, due to a drop in ticket prices, the total cost of the trip was reduced such that, if they received the full reimbursement from SG, their contribution would be reduced to less than 95%. If they received a smaller reimbursement from SG to reach the 95% contribution, they would end up using less than 80% of the SG funds.
