      3. Questioning
        - a. Varela: What happens if catering never gets paid
        - b. RSO: It's not really our problem. More of a BO/Catering issue
        - c. Varela: Did they tell you that they were going to be here today
        - d. Varela: Any reasoning on why they didn't spend?
        - e. Rose: From my understanding they thought it would be automatically spent
        - f. Varela: MTD
      4. Debate
        - a. Varela: Given the facts the sanction is proper, I don't feel comfortable sanctioning them without their presence
        - b. Benche: I think 25% because the RSO was here last week
        - c. Rose: I think 25-30% is appropriate
        - d. Hendry: I am in favor for postponing but I think that we should do a 30% sanction because they haven't paid the catering service yet
        - e. Varela: We could always do a higher sanction
        - f. Rose: Max sanction is 60%. I don't think there was any malice in not paying

      2. Speech
        - a. RSO response in documents.
        - b. Summary of events from what I understand: The RSO wanted 3 food providers for the event: Lazy Moon, Publix Subs, and Qdoba. After the Qdoba order got delayed + didn't provide sufficient food, the event had to be pushed back. To compensate for the insufficient food provided by Qdoba, the RSO needed to receive the other food sources sooner. However, to do so meant decreasing the quantity, and hence, the total price.

Had issues with business office ordering the items. The pens were the ones we had issues with. Issues for .7 weeks straight with that order. The logo was too big, so we fixed that. Then they said the text was too big. We changed that, and then a week later is was not approved again. It came to the point where we had to either drop it or find a new supplier.
