 - i. Nominations: Gimenez-Valero
 - ii. Speeches (5):
 1. Gimenez-Valero: I wanted to run for the chair position in this caucus, because I am very passionate about it. My family and I immigrated here in 2017 from Venezuela. I was part of SGLC and SLC, really care about senate, and advocacy, we have a large population of latin/hispanic students on campus, so it is important we recognize them. I really care about leadership, teamwork, advocacy, etc. I hope my caucus member share the same passion as I do. A few initiatives/ideas are a Latino Business Showcase, during Latin/Hispanic month to highlight small businesses. Working with admin or communications to highlight we are HSI, and not enough people talk about that, and i think it could be a great marketing point to get students to go to ucf. Concern form for latino students to express issues. Work with Latinos in Actions, from high schools, so we can show them what we do here, to show that their community extends beyond their high school, and into the college level.

iii. Questioning (5):

1. Varela: Hispanic Business showcase, would this be during Spring or Fall?
 - a. Gimenez-Valero: I see it as a Hispanic heritage month thing, or even doing an RSO showcase as well.
2. Varela: We have a lot of cultural RSOs on campus, how do you plan on collaborating with them?
 - a. Gimenez-Valero: I would obviously want to communicate with them and uplift them, support and promote any events they may have going on.
 - b. Lazo: The prior chair has a lot of great strategies, how to you plan on maintaining the relationships they cultivated before?
 - i. Gimenez-Valero: I plan on speaking to the past chair, to gain their knowledge, and continue where we left off, happy to learn more about it, and happy to start working as soon as possible.

iv. Debate (5):

1. DiChiara: This candidate embodies the same visions I had, make sure you check out the transition binder, and I'm here to help, will be voting in favor.
2. Lazo: Echoing was DiChiara said. I like that they're continuing the initiatives from before. Will be voting in favor.

v. Voting: Unanimous Consent Gimenez-Valero is elected Chair
