- Initiatives

- i. To best fulfill the objectives of this caucus, I'd like to see each member focus on an initiative, aiding in our collective ability to best represent the Arab community on campus

- 1. Arab Caucus official objective: "Ensuring the well-being of the Arab community of students at the University of Central Florida and their families by advocating for policies, representation, and resources; promoting awareness and enhancing representation of Arab students through various events, activities, and initiatives; and collaborating with RSOs to guide effective representation and to better implement resolutions to voiced concerns or issues amongst students"

- a. Please start brainstorming areas of personal interest to pursue throughout the session
- b. If needed, I'll always be available for a one-on-one to discuss anything and everything

- RSO Assignment

- i. As a Senator, we are all assigned to various RSOs and I'm currently the point of contact for the majority of Arab related RSOs active on campus
- ii. However, I'd like to ensure that every member within this caucus is assigned to at least one RSO
- iii. It doesn't hurt to get more connected 😊

- LinkTree

- i. Will serve as a collection of various resources for students within the Arab community that is made easily accessible
- a. We will begin researching and looking more into appropriate resources to include in this during upcoming meetings

- SBA Collaboration

- i. There are many potential avenues we could pursue through collaborating with SBA
- ii. Would provide valuable insight into methods in which to accomplish our aims and the support to do so as efficiently as possible
- a. Like SBA, we can create a concern form of our own which students can report issues faced on campus

*This meeting is held in compliance with the Government in the Sunshine Act.
Funded by the Activity and Service Fee through the UCF Student Government.*

- b. Could be for students or just within our caucus
 - i. Generally, this caucus will serve as a means of representation for the Arab community throughout the entirety of SG, so we must ensure we pursue the necessary avenues to do so
 - o APIA Collaboration
 - i. Tea tabling event representative of various cultures
 - ii. Will involve RSOs who would like to participate
 - iii. Set to happen around midterm season of fall
 - o SG Website
 - i. As a brand-new Ad-Hoc caucus, we need to ensure we are easily accessible to the student body
 - ii. Let's take a quick look and consider what changes we should make!
