budget packets where he needs to learn. Not ideal to have vice chair elections right now, will support the chair.

iii. Question:

1. Erched: How free will your schedules be?
  - a. Temple: Schedule is pretty free, GAP Chair responsibilities are calmed down as of now, classes are comfortable. Balanced ORS Chair and GAP VC over summer. Willing and capable of providing support wherever necessary
  - b. McClellan: All work is deadlines at midnight on weekends, no in person classes.
2. Lopez: Describe a time where you had to remain objective in SG.
  - a. McClellan: Tries to make sure legislation is written as well as possible regardless of personal opinion as DLeg. As LJR VC, saw censures and legislation based on merit rather than personal opinion
  - b. Temple: GAP Chair, moderating voice and outlook. Neutral voice. Budgeting must consider both sides. Budget committee is trying to allocate money fairly, entities are looking for funding. Putting self in others shoes. Be as unbiased as possible. Listen to the other party and take it into account. Find common ground and work together.

iv. Debate:

1. Lopez: Both great candidates. Very passionate about what they do. Would both make amazing vice chairs.

v. Vote:

1. 2-5-3; McClellan is VC

13. Final Roll Call: 11/15
