- a) Hello all! It's good to be back. The June LSAT went pretty well for me for all those wondering. Thank you to everyone who wished me luck.
- b) Today we will be looking at a few prototype versions of the GAP Weekly Newsletter that ELA Reed made. She did an incredible job they all look great
- c) We will also have our first Florida civics discussion today about the basic structure of Florida government and how a bill is written and passed. Please remember that what might seem elementary to you could be brand new to others so please listen and engage intently. All the information that is gone over in these discussions will be vital to know to ensure a successful DATC prep process and as a committee we all need to have a firm grasp of civics, hence why we are starting the simplest level.
