- a.
- 9. Old Business:
 - a. Allocations- None
 - b. Bills- None
 - c. Resolutions- None
- 10. New Business:
 - a. Allocations-
 - i. 54-81
 - ii. Speech: We are UCF Hillel and we have staff running there. We focus on building a community for Jewish students on campus. Our event focuses on bringing together our community and raising cultural awareness. p use events to bring back students who have returned from Israel. We want people to have open discussions with everyone. We have different activities and foods we bring in to raise this awareness
 - iii. Questions:
 - iv. Barekman: How many meals does the budget purchase? We are dividing our portions in half. We have not developed a full quote. It's there to feed as many people as they stop by. It is taking awhile because it is Kosher. Takes longer to find the necessary supply
 - v. Millington: Are you aware your budget is over your RSOs cap? Yes, we are aware
 - vi. Foster: Have you asked for a full itemized quote? Yes we are currently working on
 - vii. Millington: How confident are you that the food will be the full 4000? We have been working with the catering company. They will be using that 4000 dollars and do not plan on spending less?
 - viii. ORS rep: Do people sign up before for this event? People are actually able to sign up there.
 - ix. Nimbargi: Does this purchase cost 4000 in the prior years? We have usually funding this as a bill

- x. Debate:
- xi. Barekman: It is important to bring the community together. I am okay with spending this amount on food. I support this allocation.
- xii. Foster: We have approved things in the past without having a full itemized list.
- xiii. Cantrell: Looking at the last senate meeting we approved something similar so since the precedent is set
- xiv. ORS rep: We have approved similar bills in the past. Since the precedent is set, we should pass this one.
