5. Open Forum:
 - a. Raquel Toro from Academic Advancement Program
 - i. In the fall, we have a program where they talk about graduate school. Peer Knights Mentoring program is for UCF and Valencia students to talk about where they are on their grad school checklist. Mel and I have been trying to collaborate because their office is small. their office could use the help to make sure students take advantage of their program. They have workshops, coaching appointments are open to anyone. The McNair program: Specifically for students that meet first generation and low income. Also must have the commitment to get a PHD. RAMP program: You do have to be involved in research when you do apply for RAMP. Must be first generation and low income. The pre-knights webcourse is open to anyone that can get you chords.

1. Kostis: How can Student Government help?
 - a. T: Can help with visibility and larger events. In the fall, we are hoping to bring a grad fair.
 2. Capozzi: Working with RSO's?
 - a. T: I've been trying to be intentional with my interaction with RSOs.
 3. Capozzi: Do y'all have an instagram account?
 - a. T: Yes
6. Announcements from the Chair:
- a. International Women of Color Day Post: Vice Chair Castillo proposed that the caucuses and DI Coordinator collaborate to post something in honor of International Women of Color Day! If you would like to hear our brainstorm, you are welcome to sit in at our Caucus Leadership meeting today at 4:00 p.m.
 - b. Invitation to Hack-a-Day: Vice President of Knight Hacks has invited us to their Hack-a-Day, a coding event where students build software programs. They invited us to either become a panelist, host a short workshop, judge the projects, or table during the event to answer student questions/provide advice. We must submit the form by February 1st.
 - i. Date: February 4th, 2023 (Saturday)
 - ii. Starting Time: Doors Open at 9 AM, Opening Ceremonies Begin at 10 AM
 - iii. Ending Time: No Later than 8 PM
 - iv. Location: ENG2 Atrium
 - v. Who would like to attend on behalf of our caucus?
7. Announcements from the Vice-Chair:
- a. Hey everyone, Caucus Leadership will be meeting today at 4pm. I sadly can't attend :(There is going to be a lot of great information regarding initiatives that we will be doing, so I recommend all of you to go!

9. Announcements from Non-Caucus Members:
 - a. McClellan: Just a thought, can we all hand in these pamphlets. With information in general, maybe have a rotation system with the pamphlets we get so that we can get people to pick it up.
 - i. Hall: We need to do everything for Jax. Any sort of changes will have to be through them. I could talk to exec members about how we can make that happen. The downside of that is that I don't know how many people actually pick up pamphlets.
 - ii. McClellan: I would like to change the idea that people should only come up here for scantrons. Maybe have people come up here to get information.
 - iii. Kostis: It can be pretty intimidating waiting in a long line into the office. We need more plants.
10. Old Business:
 - a. Afro-Latin Unity Day
 - i. Waiting on clarification from Speaker Hall and the SU on whether we have one table or the whole patio reserved
 - ii. Catering order: submitted to Speaker Hall
 - iii. KOTT DJ: not submitted, waiting for space confirmation
 - iv. Social Media Post Request: not submitted, waiting for space confirmation
 1. Hall: I put in a reservation for the patio and tables. It seems that the person who reviewed our request did not seem to read my request. Going to send an email, hoping to get reached back by next week. Either way we have something reserved.
 - v. Time: 12pm-2pm
 1. Hall: Get a tally of how many RSOs will be attending
 - b. Premio Banderas
 - i. Waiting on ballroom confirmation from Speaker Hall
 - ii. Hall: I did put in the request. It had an option where you don't need a form for additional dates. Hopefully by Monday or Tuesday we get a response.
 - c. Legislation
 - i. MTI at 12:45pm
