- ix. Speech: The John T Washington honor society. Washington was a pivotal member of UCF faculty. We are based on the pillars of scholarship, leadership, and honor. We provide workshops and leadership opportunities around campus. We represent minority groups and empower them. We are requesting funding for food for our induction ceremony. We are in celebration of new members joining the organization, networking, and catering.
- x. Questions:
1. McClellan: How are you advertising this event? We are broadcasting via knightconnect.
 2. Parmar: What is the status of the ballroom being used and other items? Any additional items, such as food, need to be approved by the coordinator.
 3. McClellan: How did you base estimated attendance on 50? We base it around what we have seen in prior years.
- xi. Debate:
1. Parmar: I really like this bill. I like the outreach and free food is always helpful. Retained.
- xii. Vote: 7-0-0. Approved.
- xiii. 54-43
- xiv. Speech: We believe the promotional items will benefit our RSO. it will get our organization out there. We are smaller as an RSO and being able to network with other people. It will be open to all UCF students.
- xv. Questions:
1. Parmar: Are you aware of the 80% policy for funding? And do you have at least two financially trained officers? Yes and yes.
 2. Heintskill: Are you planning a date to have tabling? We typically have it every other Wednesday. And other events that other RSOs have invited us to table as well.

3. Barekman: Does the club close membership after November 2nd? This is the date the requirements to be inducted are due by.
 - a. Are these promotional items too late for this year, or are they too early for next year? No, because we also induct students in the spring semester.
 4. McClellan: Do you only do inductions in the fall? No, in the spring time as well.
- xvi. Debate
1. Parmar: I am in favor
 2. Nimbarji: Senator Barekman brought up a fair point.
 3. McClellan: Having the promotional items out will make it so outreach is continuous and members
- xvii. Vote: 7-0-0. Approved.
- xviii. Artwork: 7-0-0. Approved.
- b. Bills-
- i. 54-19
 - ii. Speech: We are Raas Rampage. Our overall goal is to pursue a greater philanthropic mission. We work with an organization that aims to help South Asians who have been affected by domestic violence. We want to host this event to engage the UCF community - show there are different facets to South Asian culture. We are going to have our show not on campus but at Lyman highschool.
 - iii. Questions:
 1. McClellan: Do you have the quotes for the rest of the merchandise? We wanted to split it up. We wanted to focus on funding decorations and production. And then Raas Rampage can also be funded by current funds the RSO has.
 2. McClellan: Is the catering and water open to all attendees? We are having a mixer and having Qdoba catering.
 3. Barekman: Have you worked with Jump Productions before? Yes, last year.

4. Millington: Why did you choose this auditorium over others?
There are certain stage dimensions which need to be met in order to properly have our production.
5. Borges: Does the Pegasus Ballroom also meet that dimension? We would need a raised stage.
6. Barekman: Jump Productions is providing their service on Saturday? Yes.
7. Parmar: Could you all look more into UCF ballrooms? We also wanted to hold the mixer event. We saw Pegasus Ballroom
8. Barekman (3): Is jump productions legacy shots llc? Jump Productions was founded by someone who worked at legacy and did all the visuals and shots for us. Do you know who this is? Yes it is Javier, we have spoken with him via zoom and discussed with him what we would like for our production. Can we also have an itemized quote of the production cost? Yes, we can reach out and receive one.
9. Borges: Do you know if the person doing the production is a UCF student or family of a UCF student, or is UCF faculty? What was the name of this person? No, they do not, Name is Javier Morales.
10. Barekman: It states here Javier was an electrical engineering student and plans to attend graduate studies here, so may we fund him? No, we cannot fund UCF students or faculty.
11. McClellan: So Raas Rampage is from January 27th to January 28th? Yes, it is.
12. Barekman: What was your attendance last year? Around 350.
13. Nimbarji: Is the Qdoba event separate from Raas Rampage? Raas Rampage is a two-day event.

14. Barekman: Are you expecting all the same number of people for all these Qdoba, firehouse and lazy moon? Yes.
15. Barekman: Are you giving this food out? We are not expecting extra food. The food being funded should work out within the range.
16. McClellan: Is it not once you buy it, it is yours? Yes, we will give out whatever excess food we have.
17. Millington: It states the food is for only the teams, but that is not correct, right? Yes, it is open to all attendees.
18. McClellan: Could you also send in the dj quote? Yes, we can.
19. Borges: Why not order Qdoba from the one on campus? We can look into that. Borges states it is cheaper and there would be no delivery fee.
20. McClellan: Asking questions to clarify other quotes
21. Millington: How many bandanas do you plan on purchasing? Around 250.
22. Barekman: How much of your attendance is expected to be UCF students? Maybe around 200 students.
23. Nimbargi: What will you do with any leftover merchandise?
24. Barekman: Do you have those promotional materials from last year? Yes, we have a bit left. So it would not be enough for us to be sufficient this year.
25. Barekman: Can I know if you have consideration if there is extra water? Last year we actually went through all the water. Although it is a lot of water, it typically goes by.
26. Barekman: Has there been any consideration to do water differently? We thought about gallons but that would not be the most convenient or efficient way.
27. Barekman: If there is any way to build water into the promotional items, could it not be more beneficial to Earth as a whole? Yes, that is true.

28. Parmar: Where are you getting water from? Probably from Costco
 29. Borges: Do you have two financially trained officers? Yes, we do.
 30. Nimbargi: Was Jump productions influential in choice of decorations? No, they were not.
 31. Nimbargi: Did you have different decorations last year? Yes, we had a Space Jam theme last year.
 - 32.
 33. Millington: Do you know how we could see more about what the decorations will be? Yes, we can get you specific definitions.
 34. Millington: Can you list off a few example items? No, we are currently not able to.
 35. Millington: Are you available next week to meet in FAO again? Yes.
 36. Borges: Are you aware of the post-funding process? Somewhat. Borges continues to explain the process to RSO. Must submit receipts of their half, must use at least 80% of SG funds in the event, and contribute 95% of their half.
 37. Barekman: Have you received more than one quote for productions? Like from other production companies? Yes, we asked Legacy shots and other event photography places and all their prices were far higher than the current pricing.
- iv. Debate:
 - v. McClellan: We will see this next week in committee again. I would like to make sure we are comfortable with everything on here. It is important to make sure everyone is comfortable moving forward.

12. Miscellaneous Business:

- a. McClellan: I wanted to ask the committee, what are some questions that could be good for a Kahoot. To make it so the average Senator is aware about fiscal to a degree.
- b. Millington: If you do have any, send them over to Ryan.
- c. Berekman: I would like to combine into a workable product, something we can instruct our constituents with. I would love to have everyone come in here and know what they need to have. Something more interactive would be helpful.
- d. Borges: ORS Chair and former DLeg Wangen made a powerpoint with myself and Millington for RSOs specifically, we have held workshops in the past especially with the Caucuses. I plan to do one at Rosen as well. I think McClellan meant more for just Senators at the retreat.
