- iv. Borges: they should have mentioned your number in the email? There were other members who requested for the same form, did they get it as well?
      - v. They got it but I was busy and late to submit things
    - b. Temple: did you expect these circumstances?
      - i. Yes, but with my work they give me a bi-weekly schedule and I was put on the schedule alot
    - c. Barekman: did you make an effort to request time off for this event?
      - i. I was waiting on another email
  - 4. Debate:
    - a. Borges: Its the same email as always, this is the same email that all students receive, I appreciate the individual being here so 5% less
    - b. Uchoa: Once you request for funding you should plan ahead, i agree with 25%
    - c. Barekman: I think there was plenty of time in advance to make arrangements.
    - d. Wangen: Please be attentive and not on your phone (Potier)
    - e. Temple: I am in concurrence with the previous notions
  - 5. Vote to Sanction at 25%
    - a. 9-0-0
- iii. CRT 54-017 (Emma Parrish) (Week 4)
  - 1. General Information
    - a. Fiscal Probation: Reversion  $\geq$  30%
    - b. Reverted $250.00 of $250.00; 100.00%
  - 2. Speech:
    - a. none
  - 3. Questions:
    - a. Borges: To my understanding they went through an issue with graduating and their accounting.
      - i. Chair: Nicholas Sollazzo and Zachary received 30% sanction
  - 4. Debate:
    - a. Uchoa: we have to be fair and 30% is what we gave the others

- b. Temple: In agreement. Saw prior individuals over summer
  - 5. Vote to Sanction at 30%
    - a. 9-0-0
- iv. CRT 54-030 (Amanda Melendez) (Week 4)
  - 1. General Information
    - a. Fiscal Probation: Reversion  $\geq$  20%
    - b. Reverted $65.00 of $200.00; 32.50%
  - 2. Speech:
    - a. No information other than 15% sanction would be applicable.
  - 3. Questions:
    - a. Borges: one of the Sistuhs allocations, what were the previous amounts?
      - i. What were the following names sanctioned at?...
      - ii. 10% or no sanction for most
    - b. Barekman: Is it common for individual allocation requests for the same event?
      - i. Borges: There were lots of issues with this meeting, the RSO sent individuals to CRT, but they were not informed at all. We don't want to sanction them, we sanctioned the RSO instead because that is where the mis-information stemmed from.
      - ii. Barekman: Are there thoughts as to when we sanction individuals what to take precedence with?
        - 1. Borges: Have considered it, one of the biggest issues would be putting Graduate students at a disadvantage
      - iii. Would it be possible to add some nuance to that without limitation of individuals?
  - 4. Debate:
    - a. Temple: in support of 10% sanction, the previous issue with SISTUHS would set a sort of precedence for now
    - b. Uchoa: lets be fair and keep it 10%
    - c. Borges: Despite feeling bad for these individuals when not on ORS , 10% seems the most fair
    - d. Barekman: I think that we should be sanctioning at 10%
  - 5. Vote to Sanction at 10%

i. Committee Review

1. How would you all like to conduct it?

- a. Could split up by chapters or conduct more in depth review within committee
- b. Will be having Chapter 800 reviewed by the full committee no matter what since it is 6 pages long
- c. Temple: What is your preferred method?
  - i. I have not run it split by chapters but we can do it however you all like. Needs to be able to trust that everyone will actually read it.
- d. Castillo: we will be splitting this up for next meeting right?
  - i. Prefer for everyone to review 2 chapters
- e. McClellan: If you were to do this together, you could knock two birds with one stone.
  - i. Chair: no matter what this will all be discussed in committee
- f. Chapters: 1 / Committee: 4 / Abstain: 2
- g. Barekman: I think that as a fiscal chair this is important but otherwise i would not read it
- h. Temple: This will allow for leaderships perspective as well
- i. McClellan: You could always review chapters on your own alone
- j. Chair: we will start from the bottom going up
- k. Barekman: I have a tendency to read everything and do everything
  - i. Chair: I go through and see what I want to be changed, I think having the whole committee go over this would be beneficial for all

ii. Statutes Crash Course
