 - a. Kei: Based on article... wants to be identified by history and culture... comfy with the Latinx term. According to the article, Latinx is supposed to be inclusive, but does the opposite by pushing away history/culture. Also affects only 2% - 3% of the population. Does not believe Latinx does not identify our culture and nationalities, and pushes away culture to an extent.
 - b. Nicolas: Agrees with Kei... feels like Latinx is not supportive of culture. Does not contribute to the culture. Wants to find a term that identifies everyone, and suggests a poll for the x. Believes we should raise awareness of our culture. Does not identify well with Latinx.

- c. Saucedo: Preference on...
 - i. Kei: Hispanic is more of a term for those in Spain and Latin America. Identifies as Latina since she was born and raised in Ecuador.
 - ii. Nicolas: Identifies as either Latino or Hispanic.
- d. Saucedo: Opinion on how those that are non-binary feel about the removal of the x.
 - i. Kei: Has not heard much. Did hear about the x or the e at the end. Is not in their shoes and does not really have much to say.
 - ii. Nicolas: Same as Kei.
- e. Kalec: Agrees with Kei and Nicolas on the poll for the x. Agrees that most of us are Latinos and maybe Hispanic some way and form. Agrees that Hispanic is a more broad term for the culture. Agrees that the Latinx is used in English to be inclusive but it is not the same in Spanish. We should bring more awareness to the culture. Does not mean disrespect at all.
- f. Saucedo: Preference on Hispanic vs. Latino
 - i. Kalec: Hispanic represents most of us, so agrees with that. Also honors the history for Hispanic as well. Also believes will be more broad (the term)
- g. Saucedo: Opinion on how those that are non-binary feel about the removal of the x or Latine.
 - i. Kalec: Agrees that the x or the e, helps with identifying more people but leads to a fight of powers. Feels like with Hispanic, it is broad and also refers to the history. In favor of that.
 - ii. Victor: Not Hispanic because not from Spain (Brazilian), and is in favor of Latin in the front, or those with indigenous backgrounds.
