 - v. AJ: Brodie
 - vi. Camp: I'll talk to Brodie
 - vii. Jade: Any assistance with justice Robbins initiative from the next sessions caucus?
 - viii. Berek: Back to the budget, I'd like to see us provide better social services rather than infrastructure needs, maybe see those departments shrink a little bit
 - ix. Camp: Where would we get funds from
 - x. Robbins: Actually getting a physical representative in these offices would be worthwhile
 - xi. Camp: There aren't many senators that sit on disability caucus, there are logistical issues that can arise

- xiii. Berek: I think it needs to happen prior to this, connecting to SAS and connecting with them rather than just attending meetings, who is going to be served. Gathering stats and numbers about challenges people face on campus and how we can help them
- xiv. Camp: SAS would be the best place to get these from, they don't give them out though
- xv. Robbins: You could put out a survey and gather your own stats
- xvi. Camp: People on the budget committees want hard numbers
- xvii. Robbins: That's what surveys are for
- xviii. Camp: I had previously asked disability coalition, they don't want survey information they want stats from SAS
- xix. Camp: I'll talk with them, an initiative I want next year is a peer advocacy program, this would allow students to advocate or other students to get the accommodations they need. It would be relatively easy to implement
- xx. Jade: What would the caucus role be?
- xxi. Camp: The RSOs and Caucus supporting it would be beneficial, it would be a volunteer program of staff and students, people who are already knowledgeable about these topics

12. Initiative ideas

- a. Transcripts for online senate zoom meetings
- b. More funding for social services
- c. Representatives from disability caucus to sit on financial/budget meetings
- d. Peer advocacy program
- e. Further disability commons development

13. Member Discussion:

- a. None

14. Miscellaneous Business:

- a. Judicial rep initiative
 - i. Robbins: I would like to hear some feedback about my initiative
 - ii. Camp: There have been lawsuits about websites having audio or easy to read accommodations. I'd love to advocate for that, make it more compatible to text to speech options.
 - iii. Robbins: Do you have any recommendations?
 - iv. Camp: I'd have to do some more research
