CAPS. They're trying to implement things that don't help our students, like 6 appointment limitations. This will be sent to a lot of people like the director and I want to bring this resolution to show at my meetings with them, to give the idea some backing.

2. Questions:

- a. McClellan: What was the survey? Related to surveys from CAPS report

3. Debate:

- a. Capozzi: Really support this. Too many issues and this is great
- b. Campell: We should try and give CAPS as much funding and I went for a while but I stopped because they have not enough funding

4. Vote: 8-0-0

b. Proclamations

1. Speech:

- a. Traynor: Went over what we're doing. Guide you through with 54-19 as an example. First and last 3 clauses are the same. Look for all the in between to read.

2. Questions:

- a. McClellan: Should we end by saying therefore it be resolved...? Yes
- b. Capozzi: Do you mind include information about the family? Yes
- c. Saucedo: Are we gonna conduct the speech, question, and debate? Yes, we will motion for unlimited speeches and yield to the next person because we will see them all as a block. There's no question - straight into debate
- d. Saucedo: Since we are seeing them as block when the first person is done, does the next person yield? Yes

3. Debate:
  - a. Campbell: No reason it should not go through
4. Vote: 9-0-0
- ii. Proclamation
  1. Speech:
    - a. Foster: Hey, pretty heavy proclamation. John C Hitt was the previous president. I wanted to write this to honor him as I see him as a founding father. He decreed a lot of degrees. Testing rates soared and he saw a lot of different departments. He is one of the reasons we are in the Big 12. He advocates strongly for partnership. He participated in numerous boards. The library was renamed after him and he made many important contribution. He was names most influential to central Florida. He will be remembered as founding father and his tenor will be memorialized. Never met him but I heard he used to talk to students. I met his wife. I think this is the bare minimum that I can do
  2. Questions:
    - a. None
  3. Debate:
    - a. Campbell: Both my mother and brother during Hitts presidency and he was a constant figure on campus. He showed up and ate at Knightro and he made himself known to every person here because he wanted to be down to earth and someone you could talk to. Theres more to him that made him a genuine person.
    - b. Capozzi: this is an amazing proclamation to pass honoring someone as great as he was in the community
  4. Vote: 9-0-0
- iii. Proclamation 54-42 [Proclamation Celebrating Trans Day of Visibility o...
  1. Speech:
    - a. Yalaminchilil: wrote this bc trans visibility is next sunday and trans people across america are facing attacks by politicians such as bathroom and sports bans and much more. This week of visibility is new as of two years ago and wanted to mobilize people against this. Each day has its own purpose to condemn certain things. Despite these attacks, awareness is growing and trans people will continue to be brave against these attacks and it is important that SG acknowledge this and encourage others to do the same. We should also educate other people. This trans week of visibility in action is here to change things and help people do their part. This is a celebration of the trans people/community

2. Questions:

- a. None

3. Debate:

- a. Campbell: Same speech as before said during amendments
- b. Capozzi: There was a drag and donut show at a hs and it was canceled because people were outraged. To cancel and ban something like that is horrendous and this needs to be talked about and passed. I support

4. Vote: 9-0-0

5. Amendments:

a. Speech:

- i. Yalaminchili - I forgot to put in the origin and the second is a be it further resolved clause that urges UCF to support trans people and the community

b. Question:

- i. None

c. Debate:

- i. Campbell: No reason to not support. I'm trans and I exist and you can't erase me with laws. Did not know trans people existed until I was 12 and took 6 years to know that's what I am. This bill is how it should be

d. Vote:

- i. 9-0-0

iv.

c. New Semester Projects
