- b. Foster- with the agreement of the Speaker, technically there is nothing saying the Sergeant at arms is vacated once there is a new Pro Temp
- 3. Debate
 - a. Yalamanchili- what it says is that current statutes that the Pro Temp picks a Sergeant at arms with the agreement of the Pro temp but is concurrent with the Speaker, this changes it to with the Pro Temp that appoints them. If either the Speaker or the Pro Temp resigns or is removed then this would make the Sergeant at arms need to be reappointed. This is harmless but there is no need for this
 - b. Urea- you can vote one way her but differently on the floor
 - c. Foster- apparently Tyler talked to Dylan and. thought it was ok.
 - d. Tache- do we need to do this? It isn't bad but this is not a big deal. I feel like we should just be able to leave the Sergeant at arms.
 - e. Yalamanchili- the position is not one of great power, it is just to keep order, I do not see why the appointment should be more bureaucratic.

 - b. Yalamanchili- do we even need to excuse this because it was wiped from last semester
 - c. Urea- not really but why not
 - 3. Debate
 - a. Yalamanchili- common sense, this is an unforeseen and unavoidable situation
