 - 3. Questioning
 - a. None
 - 4. Debate
 - a. Rose: Generally, we decide sanctions starting from the statute recommended amount and reducing based on the circumstances. The recommended sanction itself can be reduced a bit if you reimburse the business office. If you paid back the business office to reach 50% contribution, it would go to 30% plus an additional 15% for reverting >20% of senate funds, for a total of a 45% recommended sanction. This would mean reimbursing the business office for $2332.32. If you paid back the business office to reach 95% contribution, it would go to 30% for reverting >50% of senate
