JUDICIAL BRANCH

UCF Student Government
Judicial Council Meeting
Room 219
[02/04/2025]
[6pm]

- a. "via monthly check-in"
- b. Sam was thinking to add resources as an appendix
- c. Title IX is a different process, and we removed and will be possibly adding to another document
- d. We already have impartial advising material
- e. This is more of a question, but do we do these monthly check-ins, I feel like if you do not want to participate you would just tell leadership?
 - i. I do like: "opted in and opted out at any given time"
 - ii. via monthly check-in with Judicial Leadership
- 2. Rule 9.01.4
 - a. I guess I have more questions since we haven't done Title 9 advising, but do we check in every time we take one?
- 3. Rule 9.03.2
 - a. Justices may consult the Impartial Advising Resources.
 - b. I believe we could put the appendix here
- ii. Section 9:
 - 1. There are instances where cases make advisors uncomfortable
 - 2. Rework the section because a lot of this section is made to talk about Title IX advising
 - 3. Restrictions on Impartial Advising: Disclosures
 - a. We do not have to have specifics because we have a binder
 - 4. We could keep general provisions
 - 5. Rebuild the section
- b. Next week Section 10: Krystal and Bianca!
- c. Feedback on the current Prohibited Questions Doc
 - i. I included all the questions I could think about, please look through it as a group and see if you like the current format and questions. PLEASE (please!) feel free to include more questions if you can think of more of them.
 - ii. What is your residency status?
 - iii. Academic Standing
