- iii. Section 14 is just the Oath!
- iv. Review the Sections 7-14 in order to show it to council as a group
- 8. New Business-
 - a. Section 12
 - i. Bella
 - 1. Do we want to edit, it did just get written in the fall
 - ii. Bianca
 - 1. Guys maybe I am crazy, but I did not really spot anything as we just basically added her
 - 2. Possibly the change from shall to must for rule 12.02 point 3
 - b. Review Student Conduct Hearing Binder
 - i. A resource for all justices to get them familiar
 - ii. Student handbook policies and procedures just goes over the bigger picture stuff, but they are linked in the other section
 - iii. Training slides from scai (from retreat)
 - iv. Panel hearing script to be able to follow along
 - v. Sam's documents breaking down each of the hearings and their processes
 - vi. Questions in this document include the ones from scai
 - vii. Sanction document so we can look back and have a better glimpse of what each of them are
 - viii. Linked to the PDFs of the original documents to know where they came from
 - ix. Organizational misconduct hearings as they are different so that justices are aware of the major differences between the two
 - x. Quick side bar we are not getting any cases as of right now, they often happen later in the semester
 - xi. We will be adding a binder for grade appeals
 - xii. Advising them to speak to their professor
 - xiii. A lot of conflict resolution
 - xiv. Have you spoken to your professor, what can we do before the grade appeal
 - xv. Then telling them the steps if they do choose to pursue it
 - xvi. A lot submit under discrimination which would then not be the correct
 - xvii. Have evidence (as much as possible) as it helps in all types of grade appeals
 - xviii. Up to 90 days after the grade was posted
 - xix. Simple syllabus vs. Official syllabus
