4. Announcements from Chair Rezek
 - a. 5 months, 17 wrong QR codes, 1000 mis-sent emails, so many amazing Canva designs, and countless tumbler design attempts later, and we done made it!!! Among all these numbers, the 14 passionate and hardworking people behind the event are the most important part.
5. Announcements from Vice Chair
 - a. Pleasure working the event with everyone!

6. Old Business-

a. Gifts for the lawyers

Drop gifts at their office. Calloway's gift will be handed to Tori.

Bianca and Taylor: Mrs. Cook

The rest of the drop-offs will be discussed during General Counsel.

New Business-

a. General ideas on the event?

- Improvement:

Tell attendees to arrive earlier or end earlier to have networking time. Separate networking time from panel time. Preferably after the panel speaks.

Sending reminder emails to people who RSVP 'd, as many attendees were not the ones who RSVP'd. Three to one days before the event.

Let's have everything printed out the day before the event, and decorate the same day.

- Let's keep!

Personalized gifts for panelists and thank you cards.

Balloon decoration for the chamber.

Let's keep appetizers.

Have a green room/separate room for lawyers for "cocktail hour"

Let's keep two personalized questions per panelist as students' questions may be repetitive.

b. Let's go around and give one highlight and one suggestion for next year

C. Law student workshop date

Ask Shanel

Contact them and ask them whether the end of March, or what time in April, would work for them, that is not close to their exam time

Shoutout to Justin!
