8. New Business-

- a. Judicial review form!! We are going to take a look at the fiscal form and decide which fields we want to keep, and just generally what information we want to be collecting. IRC is going to handle changing the language.
- b. Judicial landing page. I think it's best to do this on the website. Thoughts?

9. Member Discussion-

- a. Take off 0.1.4
- b. Remove requirement of witnesses?
  - i. Not having witnesses could make the process more concise
  - ii. Witnesses also do not apply for every type of case being heard
- c. Grounds and statutes
  - i. Grounds for appeals?
  - ii. Arguments and oppositions?
  - iii. Grounds for opposition?
- d. Adding another line for additional citation
  - i. After statutes
- e. Keep area to upload additional documentation
- f. Section for citation of statutes
  - i. A place for you to look at what is this case all about?
  - ii. Make it more convenient for who is reviewing the cases
- g. Citations, statement of facts, and then grounds/reasoning
  - i. 3 sections to separate
  - ii. If they are serious about this getting seen, they will complete this in the manner that it is requested in the form
  - iii. Avoiding a waste of time with the process to easily deny or review
  - iv. Giving the student the opportunity to see themselves if this review is valid
- h. "When did the action/decision occur?" Instead of "When was the appealed decision issued?"
- i. Adding a section of whether they would like to file an injunction and a note explaining what it is
- j. Certification: they cannot lie about it, SCAI ramifications
- k. Landing page is next step
