 - ii. Isabella Ariza - College of Business Administration Seat #3
 1. Speech
 - a. Hello, my name is Isabella Ariza, I am a third year Interpretive Business major with a minor in Legal Studies. As for my involvement, I am a part of Women in Business, I am very passionate about creating a safe environment for women as business is a very male-dominated field. I also work with First Year Experience as an Orientation Leader, while it is a job, I would absolutely do it without pay as I love it. Something I tell all of my students every orientation that we have is it is really easy at UCF to become just a number, I emphasize we have a population of almost 70k students and encourage involvement, hence why I chose to apply for this position. I believe getting involved on campus can be a little hard, you shouldn't be one of those kids who just goes to classes and then their dorms. My first year was like that, and my second year I was lost on what to study and do. I love the college of business, and want to continue that as a senator. For my initiatives, I want to allow for resources the College of Business has to be more available to students. The office of professional development does a great job making those resources available, and that student connection is very important for one's well being and so they can thrive here. I want to promote more tabling events and to be more aware of RSOs the College of Business has. Another initiative I'd like to promote is more feedback from students, as the SG's main role is to be a voice for the Student Body, I think that hearing feedback and knowing what people want to change is very important and would like to see.

2. Question

- a. Gaudio: Can you name the 7 committees and what they do?
 - i. One of the committees is the E&A committee, which is you guys, you work to bring in new members of the Student Government. There is the FAO committee, which works with the A&S fees, there's the Government Policy committee, there's also the Legislative, Judicial, and Rules Committee, and a few others I'm blanking on.
- b. Escobar: Could you name responsibilities of a Senator?
 - i. One of the responsibilities is to be available for the open and public meetings, as well as the training requirements such as financial and ethics, as well as attending an orientation and upholding UCF's Golden Rule.

 - i. Paul Jarley.
- d. Rickett: Can you tell me how many Titles we have?
