 1. To summarize, I told her we were looking for the t-shirt design which can be the main logo (Knightro on a Surfboard in the sunset) and then a smaller one that can be added to any Instagram posts and merch like magnets, stickers, etc. (just the surfboard). Both would include the slogan, "Catch a Wave, Cast your Vote"
 2. We hope to have a logo by mid-October (Friday 10/10) and then I will present it to the rest of EC the following week (Monday 10/13).
 3. ERFs for the merchandise the first week of November, so all merch needs to be completed and finalized by the end of October. This will also give us time to create any revisions (if needed).
 4. I received an email today that the general idea for our usage of Knightro has been approved, but they will need to see the actual design before we can get official approval.
