include: JRP updates about Advising as well as specific updates about Title IX advising.

- ii. We are also currently considering what kind of mental health aspects we want to consider when it comes to our justices who will be handling Title IX cases. If you would like to join that conversation feel free to come to IRC or send me an email if you have any ideas!
- iii. We will also be looking further into justice tracking systems and what those may look like. We are currently balancing transparency and privacy on what will stay information between leadership and what will be information accessible for members to see.
- iv. I am cancelling IRC on Oct. 11 so we will not be meeting next week.

d. JOC

- i. Hey guys! JOC had a nice meeting last Friday, thanks to our SGLCRs Cameron, Victoria, and Cooper for coming out and showing some love to the committee. We have a couple of important announcements today so keep an open ear.

A. First, we have an itinerary for Downtown Day

I've scheduled a meeting with Brooke and Daniel for next Tuesday at 4PM to go over the professionalism meeting and when we're scheduling it, so watch out for that next week.

- Here's a list of topics we thought would be good to cover at the professionalism meeting:

1. Dress Code:

Business Professional (Polos are fine tucked in with a belt )

No Athletic Clothing

Name Tags BRING THEM!

2. Courthouse etiquette:

Phones Off

No talking (Criminal Case for example)

Have respect

3. Network:

Learn how to communicate with others and make connections!

B. Midnight 5K

I've emailed Elijah and I'm just waiting for a confirmation that we can volunteer, but I think it's in the bag because Elijah said they're looking for
