a. Ex-Officio Seat Elections

i. Nominations

1. Celine Torres – Hispanic Student Association

ii. Speech

1. Hi everyone, my name is Celine Torres, I'm the president and founder of Hispanic Student Association, I want to be part of the caucus because I was part of its last spring, and I was a relatively active member. I am a biomedical sciences major, with a psych minor. I tried giving ideas for initiatives and helping out whenever I could. I am Cuban American and want to participate in Hispanic Latino community and that's why I started the Hispanic student association. I know that UCF has a couple of organizations that exist already, and I want to be liaison.

iii. Questioning

1. Senator Perez: Do you have anything from last semester you think could have been done better

a. Torress: I think possibly, and I understand that people are busy but retention of people. It's important for people to start in an organization and see through its entirety and be able to give opinions over a long period of time. It something that's important to me, and I know it's important to other people and I don't see those people here. I remember from last semester there were other people, and I'm wondering where those other people are.

iv. Debate

1. Senator Perez: I'll be voting favor in this candidate, she's clearly passionate and came back from last semester
2. Senator Escobar: I agree with what Senator Perez said, she's very involved in campus and across campus and I'm glad to see her back.
